FLAT ROBBED IN DAYLIGHT. Thieves Took Their Time and Tested the Silver with Acid Before Removing It. Thieves entered the flat of John R. Bellis, at No. 6 West Sixty-sixth street, Wednescontent. In the absence of the family they forced an entrance into the dining room, where they coolly tested all the sliver-ware with acid, threw the plated ware into a corner and took the solid silver.

Trunks and drawers were carried into the front parlor, and the contents were emplied on the floor where they solected what they desired. There was not a box or drawer in the flat that was not correctly examined. No wearing apparel was taken.

o'clock, a. m., and when she returned at o'clock she at once informed the police of the West Sixty-eighth Street Station. Miss Bellis said last evening that a inmond ring, a gold chain, which was alued as an heirloom, a locket, and sevenal ther articles of jewelry valued at $100, had een taken. The other occupants of the athouse say they heard no commotion. flat-house say they heard no commot in the flat in the absence of the family.

BANIGAN TO FIGHT THE TRUST.

facture Rubber Goods.

Joseph Banigan, the late president of the United States Rubber Company, has just purchased the Saxon Mills, located at Providence, R. I., from Charles Flecher for $125,000. The mills are not equipped for the manufacture of rubber goods, but Mr. Banigan will begin immediately to put in the necessary machinery. His two sons, who were formerly in the employ of the Rubber Trust, will be placed in charge of the business. When fully equipped the mills will have a capacity of about 5 per cent of the present output of the United States Rubber Company.

The officials of the Trust are trying to reconcile Mr. Banigan's remarks at the recent annual meeting of the Trust and his present action. At the meeting he said that a large amount of the stock of the United States Rubber Company had been sold through his instrumentality to "widows and orphans in New England," and that, therefore, he would never take any action detrimental to the interests of the concern. The present move is therefore a conundrum to those interested in the Trust.
